Pastor's Corner

I have good news, bad news, good news.

The Good News. The first part of the building expansion project is nearly finished! On Monday, October 31 we have the final walk through of the new area. Then during the week of November 1-6 we need to move all the items from underneath the sanctuary into the new space. We also need to move back and wash off all the chairs, tables and kitchen items stored off site. It will be a big job that will require lots of work and patience.

The Bad News. While our Building Fund is doing well, the General Fund is significantly behind. It is to the point that it is affecting day to day operations. I need your help in the following ways:

1. If you have pledged and are behind, please try to catch up.
2. If you are on track on your giving, consider giving an extra gift.
3. If you have not pledged, please consider a one time gift.

The need is very real and affects the day to day funding of our weekly ministries.

The Good News. This congregation has an amazing history of generosity. In a word we have been blessed. Even in all the current economic anxiety and uncertainty, we have been blessed by God. I am confident we can make the transition into the new building space. I am certain that we will be able to meet our General Fund commitments. At our core we are a generous people who serve an extravagantly generous God.

Pastor Chris

Help!

We have much to move and little time to move it! All of the items stored in the basement and off-site need to be returned, cleaned off and put in their new place in the new building.

Sign-up sheets are at the church. We need some heavy lifters and people who can clean and dust items off. Work will be between November 1 and November 12. Day and night shifts are available. Please help!

Giving Thanks Meal will be held November 13 at 11:30 am

The 2011 Giving Thanks Meal sign-up sheets for attendance, salads, pies, desserts, turkey roasters and VOLUNTEERS is now located at back of sanctuary. Sign up early to get your choice of service opportunities.

~Your 2011 GTM Committee: Andy & Christina Krueger/Bob & Laura Miller.

We believe...

~The Christian faith is a life-long learning process.

~Our church family aspires to be the living presence of Christ in the world.

~Our faith in Jesus is demonstrated through our lives, actions, and commitments.

~We are striving to become a congregation of life-long givers.

~Worship is the center of our life together.

All Saints Sunday – November 6

Once a year on All Saints Sunday, we take a trip down memory lane. It is a day filled both with sadness and hope. Sadness that those we have loved are no longer with us in our daily living. But also hope that death is not the end for them or us or any who follow in Christ's way. In addition to remembering those in our church family who have died this past year, please talk to Pastor Chris if you would like to remember those outside the church family. Please provide him with three things: their full name including middle name if possible, dates of their birth and death, and relationship to you. A rose in memory of all church members who have died will be on the altar table. Family members are encouraged to take these flowers home after the 10:30 worship service as our gift.

Moderator Notes

Help Us to Help You

Spider webs are visible these days—certainly in Halloween decorations, occasionally still in yards, and, indeed, some in my house! They are definitely not a Christian symbol, but they remind me of connection and care. They symbolize, to me, networks. In my classes at UWRF I would often remind students that effective communication includes sharing information, personal needs, and concern for others through networks of friends and family, acquaintances and co-workers.

One area in our church where information is vital is pastoral care –whether that is done by Pastor Chris, Lu or other church staff, lay leaders or fellow parishioners. Caring for others is an important part of what we do as a church, and a very important first step in this connection can be taken by the person (or their family or friend) in need. We will not always know about someone’s need for support, a visit, a call or a contact unless that message gets through – via a phone call to Pastor Chris or an email to Lu or a note dropped in the Sunday offering plate.

Growing – and using – our networks can give us support as individuals, enhance our relationships and strengthen our church. Webs are strong, resilient, sticky (yes, think how we value our relationships that “stick”), and beautiful. We all need to continue to use them—intentionally and purposefully—in service to others. Please keep us informed.

In fellowship, Suzanne Hagen

New Building Project

We are almost there! At least with phase one (the new addition and remodel of the old CE wing). Right now we are looking at a completion date of Friday, October 28 for phase one. Then we will have one week to move everything downstairs into our new space. Work will begin on Phase 2 (underneath the sanctuary) through November and into early December. The Thanksgiving Meal on Sunday, November 13 is looking like our first big meal in the new space. We have much to be thankful for!

Reformation Theme: Bible Alone, Faith Alone

Reformation Sunday is upon us. First Congregational Church is part of the Reformed tradition. Reformation Sunday is one important chance for churches today to remember their heritage and reaffirm theological convictions at the center of their identity.

In days gone by, Latin was the chosen language of academics, thus some of the most important theological ideas have Latin titles. This should not throw us off today. Theologians were doing then what they do today—articulate as best as they are able their ideas about how we understand God and how God relates to the human family and the creation. Twin Reformation themes are: Sola Scriptura, Sola Fide (Bible Alone, Faith Alone).

“Bible Alone” tells us that scripture is the source and measure of faith and practice. It reminds us that it is the right and responsibility of all people to engage in interpreting the Bible. This is contrary to any notion that only some people are worthy of or responsible for biblical interpretation. Pastors and teachers do not interpret the Bible for the people. Pastors and teachers are to enable all Christians to read and interpret the Bible. Christians need to ask what the Bible has to say in the context of their own particular lives.

“Faith Alone” is, according to Protestants, the teaching by which the church stands or falls. This theological idea is really important. Faith Alone declares that people are justified (made right) before God solely because of Jesus, not because of anything people do or do not do. This teaching maintains that faith is not a thing, but a way of life. Faith is a relationship of trust. It is helpful to remember that the Gospel (the good news of Jesus) makes no qualifications at all. It does not say, “If you do your best things will work out...” or “If you repent, then...” or “If you believe...” The Gospel says “Because of the crucified and risen Christ you are right with God.” Protestantism does not neglect good works, but does not see them as a source or condition for justification. They are rather the fruits of faith, evidence of one’s acceptance of God’s grace. What difference would it make if people could move beyond their insecurities, recognize their own value, and live accordingly?

Theology is not just inaccessible ideas stuck away in dusty, big books. Theology and theological ideas, like Bible Alone, Faith Alone, give language to the way we understand God, ourselves, and the world.

Minister of Christian Education

Adult Forum

November 6: Home, Faith, and Money, Alan Tuchtenhagen

Talking about faith and talking about money can sometimes be like mixing oil and water. There are few topics as important or as difficult for faith communities to talk about. Yet much of biblical teaching and Jesus' ministry addresses money, wealth, and possessions. This Forum will consider intersection of these important issues in our lives.

November 13: A Systemic View at the Environmental Crisis, Dave Hallstrom

The forum will consider the argument presented in The End of Grown: Adapting to Our New Economic Reality, by Richard Heinberg. Heinberg maintains that issues surrounding limited resources, environmental impacts, and financial systems are not individual challenges, but one large integrated, systemic problem.

November 20: Becoming Welcoming, Barbara Peterson

Welcoming the stranger is an important Old Testament theme. Bringing unity among Jews and Gentles is an important New Testament theme. The forum will consider what it means and how it is possible to be a congregation that welcomes diversity.

2011 Advent Workshop

December 4, following the 10:30 service, is the date for the annual Advent Workshop. The event will begin with a family-friendly meal followed by a chance to make a wide variety of Christmas ornaments.

This is a great family event. It is also a perfect opportunity to invite friends and neighbors to come to First Congregational Church. Consider issuing an invitation or two! Please make a reservation if you plan to attend.

"WHAT WAS HER NAME???"

Perhaps it is age, or absentmindedness, or being a newcomer, or simply distraction, but most of us have had times where we simply could not remember who that was we were just talking to. Darn that's embarrassing! Then instead of listening intently to the sermon (sorry Chris) we mentally wander off in the recesses of our memory banks, trying to bring forth that elusive name.

Well, here is a unique solution to our problems! You may have heard of them... NAME TAGS! In case you had forgotten them, they live on the storage board near the main (but currently barricaded) sanctuary entrance. They wait anxiously all week for Sunday when they get their one chance to shine... and during the renovation, some of them have been sadly forgotten in the corner. PLEASE dust them off and give them their chance to get out of that corner for an hour. Not only will you make them shine, you will be enhancing the church experience for everyone else.

Newcomers feel a sense of comfort with a name attached to a new face, and a sustained sense of ease if they can find that face and name the next time they come. Established church goers share that same comfort. (Isn't it embarrassing to forget the name of someone you actually see all the time?)!

Remember to wear it to Coffee Fellowship too. When you wear it with pride and a smile, you radiate the warmth and friendliness of our church. YOU may be surprised at just how good it feels to hear your name used.

PS Newcomers: there are blank stick-on tags available at the entrance as well. Be sure to identify yourself so that we can greet you by name and get to know you.

Peace. The Comma Club

Urban Immersion Retreat—One word to describe this past weekend is AWESOME. Our youth were terrific! Watching and working with the kids was a pleasure. The youth worked hard Saturday on their mission project pertaining to the homeless and those with physical challenges. Despite being tired, they participated with enthusiasm in the group reflection programs coordinated through Urban Immersion Services. Parents, you all should be very proud. The parents who went on the retreat were great too, thanks for all your hard work and dedication to the weekend!

Thank you Everyone for a super weekend! Your energy and dedication warms my heart and further strengthens my dreams to make this world a better place for all people. Thank you!!!!

Silent Pie/Dessert Auction—It's that time of year again, the annual pie auction. On November 13, the youth will have an opportunity to participate in one of our youth's fundraisers. We ask our youth to bring a pie/dessert to the church by 9:30 am on November 13th to allow display preparations for the silent auction. If you are not able to attend Sunday, please bring your dessert to the church earlier and let me (Deb Hoffman 425-5633) or Pastor Chris know where the item is located.

We've had some wonderful pies and desserts in the past and I'm always amazed with what the youth bring each year for the auction. So start planning your pie/dessert contribution now and we'll see what brings in the most funds. Just a little hint if you want to have an edge on the highest bid item...chocolate is good.

"In Honor of" or "In Memory of" Christmas Fundraiser—The poinsettia/blanket program will begin the end of November and go through the first two weeks of December. Portions of the blanket sales go to World Church Services and the profit from the poinsettia plants go back to the youth funds. More information will be available in the next newsletter and upcoming bulletins.

Thank you all for your contributions and support of our youth. God Bless you all, Deb Hoffman

Mission 1: Our UCC Shared Vision

"Is this not the fast that I choose, to loose the bonds of injustice, to let the opposed go free, and to break every yoke...Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house?" Isaiah 58:6-7

What is Mission 1 and why are we doing this, now? Mission 1 is a focused time effort meant to raise awareness and reduce hunger in the world now. UCC congregations, colleges, seminaries, and health and human services agencies will join together in a collective mission campaign to collect more than 1 million food items for local food banks, raise $111,111 in online donations for Neighbors in Need (NIN), and write 11,111 letters to Congress (in support of Bread for the World's 2011 Offering of Letters) asking that U.S foreign assistance be reformed to more effectively serve the world's 2011 poorest people. The dollars raised online, the 11,111 letters, and the 11 food items are tied into this years' observance of November 11, 2011 or 11-11-11.

What will we do at First Congregational UCC, River Falls and when?

- Kick-off will be with our traditional October 2nd Neighbors in Need offering, one of our church's five for five missions.
- Next begins our four week Food Pantry collection, an opportunity for each of us to donate 11 items to our River Falls Food Shelf during the month of October. We will target the weekly offerings by focusing on the following:
 - Breakfast item donation October 9th
 - Lunch item donation October 16th
 - Dinner item donation October 23rd
 - Cash or Dick's Cash Card October 30th (for every $1 donated, RF Food Shelf can purchase $9 of food through Second Harvest or discounted items @ Dick's Market with the cash card.)
- Next will come our hands-on service at Feed my Starving Children on October 14th (sign up in the back of the church).
- Last will be an Offering of Letters Sunday during the coffee hour November 6th.

This is a one time, focused effort to be our sister and brother's keeper, the hands of Christ on earth, the hope of those who are hungry. Remember, God loves a cheerful giver so give as the spirit moves you. ~Mission Education Committee, respectfully submitted by Bonnie Jones Witthuhn.

Feed My Starving Children Update

Fifteen members of our church traveled to Feed My Starving Children in Eagan on Friday, October 14. We joined 18 other volunteers on the 9:30 a.m. shift. Despite a relatively small number we were able to pack 12,000 meals. This translates to feeding 36 children for a year. Ordinarily, it takes nearly sixty people to package what this group did. The food packaged on Friday will most likely be shipped to Somalia.

Each visit we make to FMSC we are reminded of the dire situations people throughout the world face each day with regard to the lack of food. Every day 18,000 children die needlessly from starvation. A two-hour commitment by each individual provides food for a child for a year.

A big thank you to the following who attended: Mary and Duane Church, Ann and Bob Gustafson, Connie and Bill Herris, Deb Hoffman, Joan and John Hyland, Midge and Glenn Kees, Carol Merriman, Judith Permann, Kris Roen, and Margaret Wesson.

If you have never attended one of these sessions, we strongly encourage you to do so in the future. Labeling is a necessary job that can be done sitting down if standing is an issue for you.

~The Mission Education Committee

Bread for the World.....Have Faith, End Hunger

On Sunday, November 6, our members will be asked to take part in a special Mission 1 effort of writing letters to congressional leaders as a part of Bread for the World. Bread for the World is a collective Christian voice urging our nation's decision makers to end hunger at home and abroad. God's grace in Jesus Christ moves us to help our neighbors, whether they live in the next house, the next state, or the next continent. Confronting the problem of hunger can seem overwhelming. What can one person do? Plenty.

Bread for the World members write personal letters and emails and meet with our members of Congress. Working through our churches, campuses and other organizations, they engage more people in advocacy. Each year, Bread for the World invites churches across the country to take up the nationwide "Offering of Letters to Congress." Sample letters and other information will be available for all on Sunday, November 6. Add your name to this worthwhile cause. ~Mission Education Committee
