The Joys of Small Town Living

One of my favorite songs to rock out with is Small Town by John Cougar Mellencamp. Especially this time of year, if I hear that song on the radio, the windows go down and I start belting it out in my car. It's not just the classic rock music that gets me, it is the lyrics. It talks about both the joys and pitfalls of small town living (see lyrics on next page). Even though it is growing,

River Falls is still a small town. And there are certainly joys and pitfalls in living in a small town like River Falls.

Joys like having one of your former confirmands be your grocery clerk or fix your car. Joys like having the pharmacist know from memory your kid has an allergy to a certain medication. Joys like running into neighbors in the local restaurant or walking through the park. And also joys like small town festivals such as our upcoming River Falls Days.

Yes, I know small town living comes with some downsides too. You pretty much have to drive to Woodbury to buy a pair of socks. And while in a small town you get to see all the people you know and like, it is also true you can't really escape from the people you don't appreciate. And don't even get me started on the local restaurant scene. All in all though, given the choice, small town living, especially these days, it's pretty nice.

Like church, one of the things that makes small town living meaningful is that everybody has to get involved. The small town I grew up in was much like River Falls. It was small (only 3500 people!), but located just outside a big city (I could ride my bike into Manhattan). In order for that small town to function well everyone had to get involved.

For example, in the Memorial Day Parade there were almost as many people in the parade as there were watching the parade. In much the same way, the church needs people to function well. It needs people to serve on committees and teams, serve meals to the homeless and to grieving families, to act as liturgists and worship leaders, coffee fellowship hosts and VBS helpers.

In a few weeks the Nominating Committee will begin its work of filling the slate of officers and committee members for the program season which begins in September. Serving on one of these teams is a great way, not only to use your gifts in God's service, but also it is a way to connect with other people. Please consider serving on one of these teams. And if asked, please say yes. And in the meantime, consider signing up to be a liturgist, coffee fellowship host, welcomer, nursery attendant on a summer Sunday morning. Consider helping out with VBS this year as a teacher or helper. Ask yourself – How can I serve God in one way both inside and outside the church walls?

So enjoy a small town summer. And join us on Thursday, July 7 from 6-8 pm as we enjoy pizza and a concert outside on the church lawn to kick off River Falls Days weekend.

In Gratitude, Pastor Chris

Small Town

by John Cougar Mellencamp

Well, I was born in a small town
And I live in a small town
Probably die in a small town
Oh, those small communities

All my friends are so small town
My parents live in the same small town

My job is so small town
Provides little opportunity, hey

Educated in a small town
Taught to fear of Jesus in a small town

Used to daydream in that small town

Another boring romantic, that's me

But I've seen it all in a small town
Had myself a ball in a small town
Married an L.A. Doll and brought her to this small town

Now she's small town just like me

No, I cannot forget from where it is that I come from

I cannot forget the people who love me

Yeah, I can be myself here in this small town

And people let me be just what I want to be

Ooh nah, nah, nah, yeah, ooh yeah yeah

Got nothing against a big town
Still hayseed enough to say
Look who's in the big town
But my bed is in a small town
Oh, and that's good enough for me

Well, I was born in a small town
And I can breathe in a small town
Gonna die in a small town
Oh, and that's probably where they'll bury me, yeah

A Planetarium for VBS

Our congregation will build a cardboard planetarium in July. The planetarium will be geodesic dome made out of cardboard that is 16' in diameter and 10' tall. Work times are: July 7–4:00 pm, July 12–4:00 pm, July 24–10:30 am. Please sign up to help on the sign-up table at church or online: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/904054BA9AD29A4FF2-build>

Registration forms are available at church and on the website <https://firstchurchrf.org/pages/sign-ups-forms>. Please register your child and spread the word. All are welcome!

Afghan Resettlement in Eau Claire Update

In late winter, a group of churches in Eau Claire in collaboration with Lutheran Social Services welcomed a cluster of families from Afghanistan to their community. First Congregational provided funds to support this endeavor.

The families are doing well. They are learning English, have fulltime jobs and driver's licenses, and are adapting to their new lives.

The churches in Eau Claire are now planning to bring one or two additional families related to their existing families to Eau Claire. This is good news.

Mental Health and Wellbeing

An important emphasis for the coming academic year is a focus on mental health and wellbeing for children, families, and adults. On the evenings of October 5, 12, and 19, we will host conversations about mental health and wellbeing. Presenters are:

Dr. Janette Concepcion (a PhD Psychologist),

Lauren Knapp (Psychiatric Physician Assistant), and

Dr. Kelly Delahunty (a pediatrician with expertise in psychiatry and behavior modification)

The three presentations will focus on: an overview of mental health and wellbeing; how to prevent mental illness and promote emotional wellbeing; and options to treat mental health challenges.

The goal is to have as many of our parents and grandparents of school-aged children, teens, and young adults attend as possible. Please register for these important sessions by adding your name to the list on the sign-up table or online: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/904054BA9AD29A4FF2-mentall>

What the Pastor is Reading

The American Experiment: Dialogues on a Dream edited by David M Rubenstein is a collection of essays on the dream of America. It has sections by Ken Burns, Madeleine Albright, Jon Meacham and Rita Moreno. Great book as we approach the 4th of July and remember the ways our country has both dreamed and fallen short of those dreams.

How Emotions are Made: The Secret Life of Brains by Lisa Feldman Barrett, as the title suggests, talks about emotions. A PhD and prof at Harvard as well as a doctor at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, she talks about her research into how emotions are not just automatic, they are constructed over a life time of learning. In fact she says we have more control over our emotions than previously thought.

His Truth is Marching On: John Lewis and Power of Hope by Jon Meachum tells the story of Civil Rights leader John Lewis from a faith perspective. Powerful.

Church Yoga

Jan Hansen's church yoga group meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays in the church Fellowship Hall from 9:00-10:00 am and via Zoom. Please contact the church office to receive the Zoom link.

Care Givers Needed

Many wonderful friendships have emerged from these caring relationships. The Care Team is in need of a few more members who would be willing to be matched with a senior or shut-in. Please contact the church office to volunteer or the current Care Team Members (Jan Hansen, Jill and Merle Paulson, Vicki Hoffman, Kathy Wochomurka, Callie Trautmiller, Diane Welsh, Pastors Chris and Dave).

The church has an Amazon Smile account through which the church can receive a portion of the price of each purchase you make through Amazon. You need to do two things for the church to receive this money. First, go to Amazon Smile by typing in smile.amazon.com and then add First Congregational Church River Falls to your Amazon Smile. Second, order through your Smile account by going to smile.amazon.com. Once you do this, the church will receive 0.5% of each eligible order. ## First Communion Information for Parents

When do children at First Congregational Church begin taking Communion?

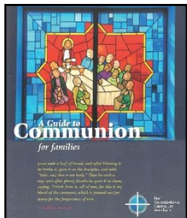

There is no uniform age at First Congregational Church when children begin participating in the Lord's Supper. Some children are pre-school age, others are in elementary school, and some wait until confirmation to begin taking Communion. The Bible and church history do not give decisive guidelines about the age to begin celebrating the Lord's Supper. The decision about when people are welcome at the Lord's Table has largely been made by local worshipping communities. Our practice is to include children when they and their parents think they are ready to participate.

How will I know when my child is ready?

Some parents choose infant communion for their children. Many parents wait until their children express an interest. Typically, children are ready to participate in Communion when they start asking questions about this sacrament. One important theme of Communion is inclusion: All are welcome at the table of the Lord. If a child feels excluded, it is a good time for that child to begin participating.

My child does not yet receive Communion. Should she/he still come forward?

Yes, all people are invited to come forward to the servers at the Communion distribution time. Children who will not be communing should keep their hands folded (as opposed to reaching out). This is a signal to the pastor and deacons that the child desires a blessing.

Communion Resource for Families

First Congregational Church has a new Guide to Communion. The resource was specifically designed for families, but it could be helpful for adults as well. Copies of the guide are available on the table in the gathering space.
