

Weekly Word – For Sunday, March 22, 2026

Worship this Week:

We usually think of resurrection as either a past or future event, something that happened to Jesus long ago and hopefully to us after we die. But what if resurrection is not something in the distant past or something after we die, but something we experience here at now? We are just two weeks from Easter and the gospel lesson for today from John 11 speaks of Jesus being the ‘resurrection and the life’ – present tense. How can we see and experience resurrection in our broken world here and now, when it is most needed? Join us at the 10:00 am worship service. Sunday School resumes after spring break, the Bell Choir provides special music and Coffee Fellowship follows at 11:00 am. Join us!
